

Interval Property Management

proudly supports

Hot Import Nights (HIN) is the country's largest touring automotive lifestyle event and the leading influencer in the sport compact car market. In addition to a dazzling display of the nation's best and most numerous customized show cars, this one-of-a-kind pop culture experience also features live music/dance performances in a unique lights-out, nightclub atmosphere. Revelers are treated to elaborate product displays from sponsors such as Boost Mobile, NOS Energy Drink, The Army National Guard, Pioneer, Envizio, Bridgestone, GM Tuner Source and more.

Hailed by Newsweek magazine as the "Lollapalooza for millions of hipster-hobbyists", HIN has been leading the automotive scene to new heights year after year. The event's innovative format and highly sought after content attract record attendance numbers in key markets, setting a new standard for car shows.

Interval Property Management is a marketing and advertising firm. Our simple mission is to cater to the needs of Real Estate owners who are interested in the sale or rental of their houses, apartments, condos, timeshares, town homes or other real property interests without excessive broker fees and commissions which are typically associated with this service. With Intervals proven system we guarantee to market your property until it's rented or sold.

With over 30 years of expert timeshare and management related experience, Interval Property Management goes above and beyond putting a buyer in touch with a seller, we develop clients for life. Two steps ahead, our strategic marketing programs ensure that our clients are handled in a quick precise manner, providing unorthodox methods to acquire unorthodox results.

